

Mission Statement

Our mission:

The mission of the Lomira QuadGraphics Community Library is to inspire lifelong learning, advance knowledge, and provide quality services to meet the informational, educational, cultural and recreational needs and interests of the community.

Our values:

- We value intellectual curiosity, and the right of all people to access information freely, through shared resources equitably distributed.
- We value quality information, and offer timely, accurate, and relevant resources, and professional information services to help our patrons find, cite, and understand these resources.
- We value community, and focus our programs and services to enrich and support community's social, economic, educational and civic infrastructure.
- We value offering traditional and innovative informational services for all ages, needs and backgrounds.
- We endorse the American Library Association's Library Bill of Rights, Freedom to View, and Freedom to Read statements.

Our vision:

We see the library as an integral part of our community's social, civic, and educational life. The Library is a public sphere in which people can deliberate and discuss issues of the day, enjoy social interactions, be entertained and inspired, and create new ideas, new things, and new relationships.
